19	against the assets of the partner to satisfy a judgment based on a
20	claim against the partnership unless:

25	(c) the partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust

27	(d) a court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy
28	execution against the assets of a partner based on a finding
29	that partnership assets subject to execution are clearly
30	insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of 31	partnership assets is excessively burdensome, or that the 32	grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's
33	equitable powers; or
34	(e) liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract
35	independent of the existence of the partnership.
36	(5) This section applies to any partnership liability or obligation
37	resulting from a representation by a partner or purported partner

41	name of a partnership if it is transferred to:
42	(a) the partnership in its name; or

1	(b) one (1) or more partners in their capacity as partners if
2	the name of the partnership is indicated in the instrument
3	transferring title to the property.
4	(2) All property originally brought into the partnership stock or 5	subsequently acquired:
6	(a) in the name of the partnership; or
7	(b) in the name of one (1) or more partners with an indication
8	in the instrument transferring title to the property of:
9	(1) the partner's capacity as a partner; or 10	(2) the existence of the partnership, with or without the 11	name of the partnership;
12	by purchase or otherwise, on account of the partnership, is partnership
13	property.
14	(2) (3) Unless the contrary intention appears, property acquired with 15	partnership funds is partnership property, even if not acquired in the 16	name of the partnership or of one (1) or more partners if the 17	instrument transferring title to the property indicates:
18	(a) the partner's capacity as a partner; or
19	(b) the existence of the partnership.
20	(3) (4) Any estate in real property may be acquired in the 21	partnership name. Title so acquired can be conveyed only in the 22	partnership name.
23	(4) (5) A conveyance to a partnership in the partnership name,
24	though without words of inheritance, passes the entire estate of the 25	grantor unless a contrary intent appears.
26	(6) Property acquired in the name of one (1) or more partners,
27	without use of partnership assets and without an indication in the 28	instrument transferring title to the property of:
29	(a) the partner's capacity as a partner; or
30	(b) the existence of the partnership;
31	is presumed not to be partnership property, even if used for 32	partnership purposes.
33	SECTION 7. IC 23-4-1-9 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS
34	[EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001]: Sec. 9. (1) Every partner is an agent of 35	the partnership for the purpose of its business, and the act of every 36	partner, including the execution in the partnership name of any 37	instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of 38	the partnership of which he is a member binds the partnership, unless
39	the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the partnership 40	in the particular matter, and the person with whom he is dealing has 41	knowledge or has received notice of the fact that he has no such authority.

1	(2) An act of a partner which is not apparently for the carrying on
2	of the business of the partnership in the usual way does not bind the
3	partnership unless the act was authorized by the other partners.
4	(3) Unless authorized by the other partners or unless they have
5	abandoned the business, one (1) or more but less than all the partners
6	have no authority to:
7	(a) Assign the partnership property in trust for creditors or on the 8	assignee's promise to pay the debts of the partnership.
9	(b) Dispose of the good will of the business.
10	(c) Do any other act which would make it impossible to carry on 11	the ordinary business of a partnership.
12	(d) Confess a judgment.
13	(e) Submit a partnership claim or liability to arbitration or
14	reference.
15	(4) No act of a partner in contravention of a restriction on authority
16	shall bind the partnership to persons having knowledge of the 17	restriction.
18	SECTION 8. IC 23-4-1-10 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
19	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001]: Sec. 10. (1) Where title to
20	real property is in the partnership name, any partner may convey title
21	to such property by a conveyance executed in the partnership name. but
22	the partnership may recover such property unless the partner's act binds
23	the partnership under the provisions of section 9(1) of this chapter, or
24	unless such property has been conveyed by the grantee or a person
25	claiming through such grantee to a holder for value without knowledge
26	that the partner, in making the conveyance, has exceeded his authority.
27	(2) Where title to real property is in the name of the partnership, a 28	conveyance executed by a partner, in his own name, passes the 29	equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is one within the 30	authority of the partner under the provisions of section 9(1) of this
31	chapter. Where the title to partnership property is held in the name
32	of one (1) or more but not all the partners and the instrument
33	transferring the property to them indicates:
34	(a) their capacity as partners; or
35	(b) the existence of the partnership, without giving the name
36	of the partnership;
37	the property may be transferred by a conveyance executed by the
38	partners in whose name the property is held.
39	(3) Where title to real property is in the name of one (1) or more but 40	not all the partners, and the record does not disclose the right of the 41	partnership, the partners in whose name the title stands may convey 42	title to such property, but the partnership may recover such property if

1	the partners' act does not bind the partnership under the provisions of
2	section 9(1) of this chapter, unless the purchaser or his assignee, is a
3	holder for value, without knowledge. Where the title to partnership
4	property is held in the name of one (1) or more but not all the
5	partners and the instrument transferring the property to them
6	does not indicate:
7	(a) their capacity as partners; or
8	(b) the existence of the partnership, without giving the name
9	of the partnership;
10	the property may be transferred by a conveyance executed by the
11	partners in whose name the property is held.
12	(4) Where the title to real property is in the name of one (1) or more
13	or all the partners, or in a third person in trust for the partnership, a 14	conveyance executed by a partner in the partnership name, or in his 15	own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the 16	act is one within the authority of the partner under the provisions of 17	section 9(1) of this chapter.
18	(5) Where the title to real property is in the names of all the 19	partners, a conveyance executed by all the partners passes all their 20	rights in such property.
21	(6) A partnership may recover partnership property from a
22	transferee only if it proves that execution of the conveyance did not 23	bind the partnership under section 9(1) of this chapter and:
24	(a) as to a subsequent transferee who gave value for property
25	transferred under subsection (1) or (2), proves that the 26	subsequent transferee knew or had received notice that the 27	person who executed the original conveyance lacked authority
28	to bind the partnership; or
29	(b) as to a transferee who gave value for property transferred 30	under subsection (3), proves that the transferee knew or had 31	notice that the property was partnership property and that
32	the person who executed the original conveyance lacked
33	authority to bind the partnership.
34	(7) A partnership may not recover partnership property from 35	a subsequent transferee if the partnership would not have been 36	entitled to recover the property under subsection (6) from an
37	earlier transferee.
38	(8) If a person holds all the interests of the partners in a
39	partnership, all of the partnership's property vests in that person.
40	The person may execute a document in the name of the partnership to evidence vesting of the property in that person and may file or record the document.

41

SECTION 11. IC 23-4-1-16 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001]: Sec. 16. (1) When a person, by words spoken or written or by conduct, represents himself, or consents to another representing him or any one, to anyone as a partner in an existing partnership or with one (1) or more persons not actual partners, he is liable to any such person to whom such representation has been made, who has, on the faith of such representation, given credit to the actual or apparent partnership, and if he has made such representation or consented to its being made in a public manner he is liable to such person, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to such person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or consenting to its being made.

- (a) When a partnership liability results, he is liable as though he were an actual member of the partnership.
- (b) When no partnership liability results, he is liable jointly with the other persons, if any, so consenting to the contract or representation as to incur liability, otherwise separately.
- (2) When a person has been thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one (1) or more persons not actual partners, he is an agent of the persons consenting to such representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as though he were a partner in fact, with respect to persons who rely upon the representation. Where all the members of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results; but in all other cases it is the joint act or obligation of the person acting and the persons consenting to the representation.
- (3) A person is not liable as a partner solely because the person is named by another in a statement of partnership authority.
- (4) A person does not continue to be liable as a partner solely because of a failure to file a statement of dissociation or to amend a statement of partnership authority to indicate the partner's dissociation from the partnership.
- (5) Except as provided in subsections (1) and (2), persons who are not partners as to each other are not liable as partners to other persons.

4	subject to any agreement between them, by the following rules:
5	(a) Each partner shall be repaid his contributions, whether by way
6	of capital or advances to the partnership property and share
7	equally in the profits and surplus remaining after all liabilities,
8	including those to partners, are satisfied; and except as provided

21	advance beyond the amount of capital which he agreed to 22	contribute, shall be paid interest from the date of the payment or

3	after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act that 4	otherwise would violate the duty;
.5	(d) unreasonably reduce the duty of care under section 21(3)
6	or 55(2)(c) of this chapter;
.7	(e) eliminate the obligation of good faith and fair dealing
8	under section 21(4) of this chapter, but the partnership
9	agreement may prescribe the standards by which the 20	obligation is measured if the standards are not manifestly
21	unreasonable;
22	(f) vary the power to dissociate a partner as a partner under
23	section 54(1) of this chapter, except to require the notice
24	under section 53(1) of this chapter to be in writing;
25	(g) vary the right of a court to expel a partner in the events
26	specified in section 53(5) of this chapter;
27	(h) vary the requirement to wind up partnership business
28	under section 67(4) through 67(6) of this chapter; or

27	SECTION 28. IC 23-4-1-56 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE
28	AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY
29	1, 2001]: Sec. 56. (1) If a partner is dissociated from a partnership
30	without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the 31	partnership business under section 61 of this chapter, the 32	partnership shall cause the dissociated partner's interest in the 33	partnership to be purchased for a buyout price determined
34	pursuant to subsection (2).
35	(2) The buyout price of a dissociated partner's interest is the 36	amount that would have been distributable to the dissociating
37	partner under section 67(2) of this chapter if, on the date of 38	dissociation, the assets of the partnership were sold at a price equal
39	to the greater of the liquidation value or the value based on a sale
40	of the entire business as a going concern without the dissociated
41	partner and the partnership were wound up as of that date.

Interest must be paid from the date of dissociation to the date of 42

1	payment.
2	(3) Damages for wrongful dissociation under section 54(2) of 3	this chapter, and all other amounts owing, whether or not
4	presently due, from the dissociated partner to the partnership,
5	must be offset against the buyout price. Interest must be paid from 6	the date the amount owed becomes due to the date of payment.
7	(4) A partnership shall indemnify a dissociated partner whose
8	interest is being purchased against all partnership liabilities,
9	whether incurred before or after the dissociation, except liabilities
10	incurred by an act of the dissociated partner under section 57 of 11	this chapter.
12	(5) If no agreement for the purchase of a dissociated partner's
13	interest is reached within one hundred twenty (120) days after a
14	written demand for payment, the partnership shall pay, or cause
15	to be paid, in cash to the dissociated partner the amount the 16	partnership estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest,
17	reduced by any offsets and accrued interest under subsection (3).
18	(6) If a deferred payment is authorized under subsection (8), the 19	partnership may tender a written offer to pay the amount it
20	estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by 21	any offsets under subsection (3), stating the time of payment, the 22	amount and type of security for payment, and the other terms and
23	conditions of the obligation.
24	(7) The payment or tender required by subsection (5) or (6)
25	must be accompanied by the following:

29	statement, if any.
30	(c) An explanation of how the estimated amount of the 31	payment was calculated.
32	(d) Written notice that the payment is in full satisfaction of 33	the obligation to purchase unless, within one hundred twenty
34	(120) days after the written notice, the dissociated partner
35	commences an action to determine the buyout price, any
36	offsets under subsection (3), or other terms of the obligation
37	to purchase.
38	(8) A partner who wrongfully dissociates before the expiration 39	of a definite term or the completion of a particular undertaking is 40	not entitled to payment of any portion of the buyout price until the 41	expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, unless the

partner establishes to the satisfaction of the court that earlier payment will not cause undue hardship to the business of the partnership. A deferred payment must be adequately secured and bear interest.

(9) A dissociated partner may maintain an action against the partnership, under section 22.5(2)(b)(2) of this chapter, to determine the buyout price of that partner's interest, any offsets under subsection (3), or other terms of the obligation to purchase. The action must be commenced within one hundred twenty (120) days after the partnership has tendered payment or an offer to pay or within one (1) year after written demand for payment if no payment or offer to pay is tendered. The court shall determine the buyout price of the dissociated partner's interest, any offset due under subsection (3), and accrued interest, and enter judgment for any additional payment or refund. If deferred payment is authorized under subsection (8), the court shall also determine the security for payment and other terms of the obligation to purchase. The court may assess reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of appraisers or other experts for a party to the action, in amounts the court finds equitable, against a party that the court finds acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith. The finding may be based on the partnership's failure to tender payment or an offer to pay or to comply with subsection (7).

2	1, 2001]: Sec. 68. As used in this section through section 75 of this
3	chapter, the following terms have the following meanings:
4	(a) "General partner" means a partner in a partnership and
5	a general partner in a limited partnership.
6	(b) "Limited partner" means a limited partner in a limited
7	partnership.
8	(c) "Limited partnership" means a limited partnership
